2 Conference maintains its commitment to a national housing target of 3 380,000 new homes per year, to set a clear direction of travel and to 4 indicate serious intent to address the housing crisis.

5 Conference believes that local housing targets need to exist as part of 6 delivering an overall national target; local and central government share
7 responsibility for delivering the housing we desperately need. Local
8 Planning Authorities should co-operate at regional or sub-regional level
9 to ensure that they deliver homes where they are needed.

10 Conference agrees that Liberal Democrats should put in place detailed 11 policies to address the ongoing national failure to build enough homes.
12 Only with an ambitious response to the housing crisis can people in 13 desperate housing need have a realistic ambition to buy or rent the 14 home they need.

6 13. Encouraging development of existing brownfield sites with financial 7 incentives and ensuring that affordable and social housing is 8 included in these projects.

10 who fail to develop land that has been given full planning
11 permission.
- 12 15. Strengthening the investment in infrastructure works to free up

- 1 In II. (line 8), after 'property' insert: 'while other policies such as cuts to
2 stamp duty have increased demand for homes without increasing the
3 supply, exacerbating the crisis'.
- 4 After iii) (line 56), insert:
- 5 iv) Our built environment has a huge impact on our climate. And less
6 land-hungry forms of building are more sustainable and can help us
7 meet our carbon targets, for example making more optimal use of 8 land (including brownfield sites) and better use of existing homes.
- 9 v) Many communities want to build more homes and need to see

5 Delete 3. (line 56) and insert:

6 3. Build on the long-overdue proscription of the Wagner Group, by 7 making the case to our international allies such as the US and the 9 proscription orders and sanctions are not circumvented.

1 After vii) (line 36), insert:

2 viii) The ongoing persecution of anti-war activists inside Russia,

6 maximum sentence of 10–15 years.

7 After 7. (line 79), add:
