

ROWAN FITTON FOR ALDE DELEGATION

An Experienced Voice and A Fresh Perspective

Having been International Officer for the Young Liberals and a member of the ALDE Delegation for European Liberal Youth (LYMEC), I want to step up and represent our party as a whole on the European stage.

We have an opportunity to step up over the next three years and ensure that ALDE is ready to take on the challenges facing Europe today and consolidate our party's commitment to Britain place in Europe.

I've written resolutions to be debated at ALDE Congress and represented our party at the most recent ALDE Council. I bring the skills and insight to deliver for our delegation.

With this experience, I know how ALDE works and I will use my knowledge and connections with partner organisations to ensure we make an impact and continue to lead discussion at the European level.

WHAT I WILL BRING TO OUR ALDE DELEGATION

Strong Links with Key Partners

With my working relationship with partners like Fianna Fáil in the Republic of Ireland, or Nasa Stranka in Bosnia and Herzegovina, I can help support our co-operation in ALDE and foster better partnerships across Europe

Experience Driving Policy

Whether through my experience writing resolutions for LYMEC, or my recent work leading YL in bringing a policy motion to conference on providing support to Ukrainian children in the UK, I have the skills and experience to engage with European policy and make progress happen.
