

Councillor Tim Pickstone

1st choice for Federal Council councillor rep

We need to keep winning local elections right
across the country

Liberal Democrat local government has been at the heart of our success in recent years. After seven years of growth there are 3,200 of us. We run or lead 74 councils across England, Scotland and Wales.

We need that local government voice heard loud and clear at a national level. Let's make sure our success continues and we keep making a Liberal difference at every level.

More about Tim...

25 years as a Liberal Democrat councillor, winning against Labour in urban Greater Manchester and winning against the Conservatives in rural Cumbria.

Lib Dem Lead Member on the LGA Improvement Board since 2023.

Chief Executive of ALDC, leading services and training for Lib Dem councillors and helping more Liberal Democrats win.

Dear fellow councillor

I'm standing to be one of the councillor representatives on the Federal Council because I want to make sure that local government has the voice we deserve within the national party.

I'm incredibly proud to have served as a Liberal Democrat councillor for 25 years. Our 3,200+ councillors deserve to be well represented at every level of the Liberal Democrats.

Having met so many of you through my role at ALDC, I know just how important campaigning at a local level is to the future success of the Party, and I know how passionate all of us are about winning.

Let's keep winning, at every level, throughout Britain.

Best wishes

Tim Pickstone
