

Vote S. R. Forster 1st Preference for Federal Council

About me

I'm S. R. Forster. I have worked in the NHS, in admin roles and as a stop smoking advisor for pregnant women, and I'm currently studying Biomedical Sciences with The Open University. I have psephological experience, projecting election results using regression models for the Election Predictor and Political Commentary project. I have served as Diversity Officer, Secretary, and Elections Officer for my local party.

As someone who is disabled and chronically ill, I believe representation matters, and that is why I'm standing for Federal Council (and Federal Policy Committee), to bring my lived experiences to the Federal Party.

My priorities for Federal Council

- Be a voice of the grassroots: The grassroots is the backbone of our party. It is vital that their wishes, as voted for at Conference, are upheld. I will analyse the finer details to ensure that the strategy of our party is in keeping with the wishes of members.
- Enhance communication within the Party: Through working in the NHS, I have experience in cutting through bureaucracy to obtain key information for stakeholders and patients. I will have an 'open door' policy, whereby any member can email or contact me about any Federal matter and I will strive to consult with relevant bodies and report back to them.
- More inclusive activism: As someone who is chronically ill and disabled, I have at times felt frustrated and of less value because I cannot physically canvass much. People on the doorsteps are vital, but I will also promote other key roles within campaigns such as social media, literature design, communications, and campaign 'admin'.

- Boost the Party: I am in the process of setting up an 'Unofficial Lib Dem Campaigners' Network' to link willing Party members to local campaigns who need people of their skillset. Additionally, I am in the process of setting up an 'Unofficial Lib Dem Road to 100' Taskforce that will provide targeted support to local parties falling under this remit.
