

Liberal Democrats Internal Federal Elections 2025

GLD, as one of the largest of the Lib Dem Affiliated Organisations, has nominated candidates for several of the LD Party Committees.

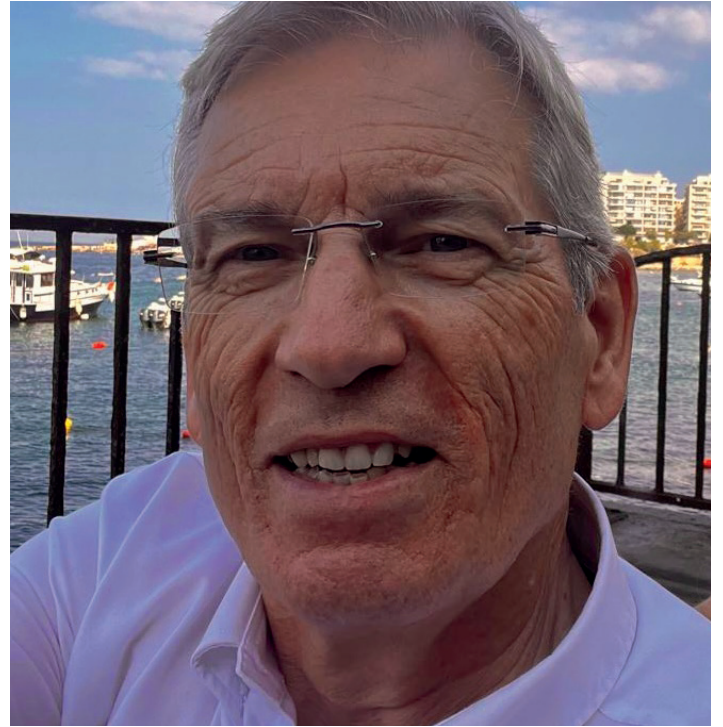

We all subscribe to the shared values of the Preamble to the Party Constitution, but, in particular, we recognise the following sentence as the key guiding principle in helping to decide Party Policy now and for the foreseeable future.

"We believe that each generation is responsible for the fate of our planet and, by safeguarding the balance of nature and the environment, for the long-term continuity of life in all its forms."

Jed is standing for the Federal Conference Committee, FCC

Please vote for all GLD-nominated candidates as high as you possibly can!

VOTE #1 for FCC

Jed Marson

Jed Marson is standing for the Federal Conference Committee (FCC).

Jed is currently Vice Chair Campaigns of the Green Liberal Democrats and has been deeply involved in shaping the party's campaigning on climate, energy, transport and local resilience. His work connects national policy with real delivery in communities.

Experience

Jed has a track record of turning ideas into action in next generation technologies and campaigns. He helped lead successful work in broadband rollout in Worcestershire, giving local businesses and families the digital infrastructure they needed.

Jed stood as Parliamentary Candidate in Tamworth in the 2024 General Election.

He also stood as a County Council Candidate in Tenbury and fought on issues of transport reform, renewable energy and local economic and flood resilience.

Earlier in his career, Jed worked at the intersection of technology and sustainability – managing companies, brokering agreements and bringing forward innovations in computer telephony, energy saving and sustainable home improvement. His work has included political lobbying, sustainable transport initiatives, and helping small businesses find their route to market.

As Vice Chair Campaigns of the Green Liberal Democrats, Jed has driven messaging and strategy that connects climate policy with members' priorities, ensuring our voice is heard and seen as a credible alternative to both Labour and the Conservatives.

Approach to FCC

Jed's approach is to combine fairness with good judgement, listening carefully and respecting differing views, while keeping debates focused and constructive.

He has organised and run campaigns, events and lobbying efforts where success depended on creating space for new voices while delivering clear outcomes.

On FCC Jed will work to make Conference the place where members' ideas are sharpened and valued – whether through drafting advice, amendment selection or debates in the Hall. His priority will be transparency, accessibility and maintaining a high standard of debate that reflects the strengths of our membership.

Why vote for Jed?

Jed combines deep campaigning experience with the practical know-how to deliver in today's world and a vision for tomorrow's.

He has stood as a County Council candidate, worked across sustainable transport, home energy and broadband, and as Vice Chair Campaigns of the Green Liberal Democrats he helps shape policy with real impact.

He has learnt from hard battles – Brexit, local development disputes, climate campaigns – and built alliances that found solutions others missed. FCC is where members' priorities become real debate, and Jed will defend members' voices and ensure the process delivers genuine wins that can be carried forward into votes and action.

Personal Statement

Jed says...

"We have developed a strong raft of environmental and campaigning policies, but we must ensure they are matched by practical, deliverable approaches that resonate with members and voters alike.

Our economic and social policies must align with our environmental approach to climate change and community resilience.

FCC is where members' priorities become real debates, and I will ensure that process is open, tolerant, fair and focused on delivering wins.

I hope I can count on your support."
