

JACOB!

FOR FPC

PROFESSIONAL, RADICAL, DELIVERABLE

Let's cut to the chase - I want to see a Liberal Democrat Government

But in order to achieve that, we have to develop a policy platform which reaches out to as many people as possible, but can also pass muster and be delivered.

I've worked for two Liberal Democrat MPs, helping them to develop and deliver their policy platforms. I've also worked in the charity sector, developing and lobbying for policies to tackle some of the tough challenges in the health service.

My background in local government campaigns means I know how important it is that our policies support our whole party to win, not just at a national level. Equipping council candidates with the solutions that matter in their local area will deliver us even more victories in the run up to the next General Election.

It's time for FPC to step up and deliver - and I believe I can help us to do just that.

WHO AM I?

- Senior Researcher to a Liberal Democrat MP.
- Former campaign organiser and caseworker.
- Previously worked in the charity sector, in health policy and public affairs.
- Degree in British Politics and Legislative Studies.
- One-time marathon runner.

A PROVEN WINNER, READY TO DELIVER

JACOB!

FOR FPC

PROFESSIONAL, RADICAL, DELIVERABLE

PROFESSIONAL POLICY

Our policy platform must stand up to scrutiny, and be informed by the best available expertise and evidence from inside and outside of the party. FPC must be open to hearing good ideas from wherever they come. In the health sector, I worked across coalitions and organisations to deliver strong policy objectives - and on FPC I would ensure that all expertise, from across the relevant sectors, can contribute to our policy development process.

RADICAL POLICY

When Britain has faced great challenges in the past, it has been liberals who delivered the policies to bring it back to greatness. It's our duty to face up to the future, ask the tough questions and put forward our answers to the economic, social and political challenges of 2025 and beyond. On FPC, I would make sure that we deliver on that mission.

DELIVERABLE POLICY

The current and previous Governments showed that voters have little time for people who can't deliver change, fast. With my extensive knowledge of the political and parliamentary system, I would make sure our policies can deliver a liberal revival from day one of a Liberal Democrat Government.

WHO'S BACKING ME?

"Jacob has supported me over a number of years with policy and campaigns at District, County and Parliamentary level. His in-depth knowledge of the systems of Parliament and Government have helped me to deliver for the people of North Norfolk in my first year as an MP. His presence on FPC would support our wider party to create and deliver policies that make a difference to people's lives. He'll be getting my first preference, and I hope he gets yours too!" - Steff Aquarone MP

I met Jacob when he worked in the charity sector. He knows how to deliver policy that makes a real difference - and how to work for those people that policies have left behind. He's exactly the kind of diverse, experienced voice we need on FPC.
