"The Liberal Democrats must be the first and last line of defence against populism"

ABOUT ME

Hello! I'm Josh, proud Liberal Democrat MP for my hometown of Eastbourne, the sunniest town in the UK! Here's a bit about me:

I LOVE OUR PARTY

I joined the Liberal Democrats aged 16 - most of my life! - and have never looked back.

Ahead of the last election, I was proud to sit on the party's manifesto steering group and I vice-chaired the party's Racial Diversity Campaign, supporting underrepresented members to stand for election.

I ROLL UP MY SLEEVES

I spent my career before becoming an MP building an award-winning organisation supporting young ex-offenders out of crime.

Based on this real-world experience, I know what it takes to bring people in from the margins.

I KNOW HOW TO WIN

I'm proud to have built a show-stopping team to beat the Tories locally - first as a local councillor in Eastbourne and now as the town's MP.

I've also taken on Labour, standing in a safe seat in 2019.

CAMPAIGNERS RIGHT ACROSS OUR PARTY ARE BACKING JOSH

MY PLAN AS PRESIDENT

I want to ensure that our party has the energy, focus, and ambition to fight for the soul of our country and take on the populism and nationalism that threatens our society. Here's how:

BE A BOLD MEGAPHONE FOR OUR PARTY

With populism sweeping our communities, we need a President who will ensure that every corner of the country hears our bold, liberal voice.

I'll use my national platform as an MP to reach new audiences, and recruit new Lib Dem members, activists and campaigners to join our liberal fight.

EMPOWER MEMBERS TO WIN

Community politics can inoculate our communities against division.

I'll work with ALDC and our Campaigns Team to ensure we arm members with the latest tools, tech and networks to challenge our opponents on the ground.

DIVERSIFY OUR PARTY

We need to better reflect the communities we're ambitious to serve.

I'll work with Associated Organisations to craft a strategy to drive greater diversity at all levels in our party.

DRIVE YOUTH ENGAGEMENT

16 and 17-year-olds will vote at the next General Election. We must be ready and not abandon young voters to the populists who seek to exploit them.

I'll drive a youth engagement strategy, learning lessons from Scottish and Welsh colleagues (with votes at 16 for some elections already), and working with the Young Liberals.

CHAMPION LOCAL GOVERNMENT

As a former councillor, I know that local government is the frontline of our fight against our political opponents.

I will ensure the party shouts about Lib Dem councillors' successes and I will start closing the gap between town halls and Westminster by piloting a buddying scheme between some of the party's council group leaders and parliamentarians.
