“ In my 30 years in the Liberal Democrats, there have been times of celebration and times when it felt as though I was one of a small band carrying the candle of Liberalism through the darkness. Our recent success is wonderful, but we now find ourselves in a place where everything we believe in is under threat from populism and nationalism. We also mustn't lose sight of the importance of Europe to our future.

There is a lot at stake, and we need to be ready to fight for Liberalism harder than we have ever fought before. We are the cavalry: no-one is going to fight this battle for us. So, vote for me as your #1 choice for President, and let's make sure this is a fight our party can win.”

With best wishes,

Prue Bray MBE

#1 CHOICE FOR PRESIDENT

“ Unlike the Leader, the President of the party doesn't usually have a role being the public face of the party, or in policy. Instead, they are the chief representative of the members: they are your voice in the leadership of the party - no-one else's. Effective Presidents need to understand how the party works, and how it could work better. My experience and winning track record make me the best candidate to be the next party President.”

I am or have been:

Chair of ALDC

Vice Chair of Federal Council

Chair of the English
Candidates Committee

Chair of the Disciplinary Sub-
Group

Member of the Federal Elections
& Communications Committee

Member of the Federal People
& Development Committee

“ Despite my long experience in helping the party run better, I'm an ordinary member like you. I've been a Borough Councillor in Wokingham for the last 25 years, and in my spare time, I enjoy reading detective novels, listening to The Archers and watching Doctor Who. I like quizzes, and was a finalist in the quiz show

Fifteen to One. I'm also interested in history and archaeology and in other cultures: memorable moments on my travels have seen me under KGB surveillance in Soviet Siberia, trapped in a lift in Samarkand, and snowed-in in Lesotho.”

You can find out more about my plan on my website - these are my priorities:

I WANT US TO:

1 Demonstrate we are worth voting for, by living the values we believe in.

“The Liberal Democrats exist to build and safeguard a fair, free and open society, in which [...] no-one shall be enslaved by poverty, ignorance, or conformity.”

Foster diversity and combat prejudice within our own party.

Protect our party's internal democracy and strengthen it.

Be open and fair, and respect others, while holding firm to our values.

2 Strengthen relationships within the Party, to maximise our effectiveness.

Understanding how our party works, and doesn't, is crucial. The roles I've had over the past few years have given me an excellent sense of what's working well, and what isn't - and of how we can do better.

Promote collaborative and consultative decision-making at all levels.

Facilitate access to expertise through mutual support throughout the party.

Communicate and inform while listening and learning.

3 Improve the robustness of our organisation to make our successes sustainable.

We must build on the success of the last Parliament by improving our central organisation and how it works with the party. Our members are our strength: we must let them shine.

Plan for the long term with evidence-based, risk-assessed decisions.

Ensure party administration is both properly resourced and treated well.

Ensure that HQ is more responsive to the membership and its needs.
